VOLUNTEER MANAGEMENT CENTERS INC.

Outreach Programs for Seniors & People with Disabilities

Telephone Reassurance Program

A daily phone call connects a lonely or isolated senior or a permanently disabled adult with the outside world. It brings peace of mind to caregivers in knowing someone is checking on the recipient's safety and well-being. There is security in knowing someone is in daily contact with a loved one.

- Each weekday volunteers make phone calls from calling sites throughout Morris County.
- Each volunteer is screened and trained in emergency procedures; many have been instrumental in averting tragedies.
- In addition to checking on the recipients, volunteers provide a “friendly ear” and can give information about available services.
